"Feverishly writing songs and releasing them for two years was fun and chaotic. It resulted in bright sounding faster tunes like Rocking Horse, Paper Dolls and North Moon. When my brother Justin died in 2018, I took a moment to pause. If this album has a pace, it's a long hike in the Rockies and I'm just a juniper tree surviving the elements. I want people to put on this record and feel grateful for all the things they've made it through. We've come a long way." ~Breanne Marie

"'Juniper' is wonderfully soaring and uplifting alongside even the saddest of scenarios." Americana UK

Bio: Great Lakes country music from a front porch in Duluth, MN. Breanne Marie broke into the Minnesota music scene as a solo performer with an acoustic guitar and a repertoire of country covers and originals. The success of her first album in 2013 set the stage for the formation of her full-blown backing band The Front Porch Sinners; Evan Tepler on guitar, Johnny Peterson on pedal steel and mandolin, Kailyn Pelerin on fiddle, Tarek Makky on bass, and Matt Groom on drums.
